

English

April Year 3&4

Tutor In A Box

1 Learn the spellings: natural, naughty, notice.

2 Draw a character from your reading book using details from the story.

3 What was the best part of your reading book and why?

4 Learn the spellings: occasion, often, opposite.

5 Choose someone you'd recommend your reading book to. Why would they like it?

6 Extend this sentence by using when, if, because or although: I do my homework...

7 Find a word or phrase that tells you how a character in your reading book is feeling.

8 Create a timeline of events that happen in a book you've read recently.

9 Why is an index useful in a non-fiction book?

10 How can we find out what an unfamiliar word in a text means?

11 Find 3 unfamiliar words in your reading book and look up their dictionary definitions.

12 Put the 3 words from yesterday into a sentence each.

13 Learn the spellings: ordinary, particular and peculiar.

14 How many words can you make from the letters of your full name?

15 Retell a story you've recently read to a family member.

16 Write the opening line to a short story.

17 How would you summarise the current chapter of your reading book?

18 Pick a character from a film and write a list of adjectives to describe them.

19 Imagine your own world. Draw and label a map of it!

20 What is the difference between writing in the first and third person?

21 Think of a setting you've read about and note down why you like it.

22 How do you think your current reading book will end? What makes you think this?

23 Imagine you are a character from your favourite book for one day. What would you do?

24 Write a short playscript of a conversation between two characters in a book you're reading.

25 Can you list some modal verbs?

26 Devise a headline for a news story about something that happens in your reading book.

27 Write out three sentences that use a possessive apostrophe.

