

English

April Year 5&6

Tutor In A Box

1 Punctuate this dialogue: Was it really you? she questioned. Yes, I'm afraid it was.

2 Is this a statement, question, command or exclamation: Who do you think you are?

3 Write a list of synonyms for 'said'.

4 Do we use the determiner 'a' or 'an' when the next word starts with a consonant?

5 Add a subordinating conjunction: I got my umbrella ___ it had started to rain.

6 Learn the spellings: necessary, neighbour, nuisance.

7 Put these verbs in the simple past tense: eat, drink, go.

8 Give some examples of cause and effect conjunctions.

9 Expand this noun phrase using a prepositional phrase: The dictionary.

11 Rewrite the blurb for your current or last reading book to improve it.

13 Put these verbs in the past tense: writing and talking.

14 Learn the spellings: occupy, occur, opportunity.

15 Which two modal verbs begin with 'c'?

16 Underline the relative clause: I know a boy whose uncle is a magician.

17 Write a list of synonyms for the word 'excited'.

18 Make these adjectives into adverbs: sudden, regular and loud.

10 Add a co-ordinating conjunction: I love playing football ___ lacrosse.

20 List the main characters in your reading book and rank them in order of how much power they have.

21 What techniques can we use to show that a character is upset?

22 Learn the spellings: parliament, persuade, physical.

23 Identify the verb in this sentence: Persuade your parents to let you come out.

24 Make a map of the setting of a recent reading book, adding as many details as possible.

26 Identify the subject and object: The yacht was struck by lightning.

27 Is a diary written in first or third person? What pronouns should be used?

19 Put this sentence in the passive tense: The boy kicked the football.

28 Find clues in your current reading book that tell you which time period it is set in.

29 Identify the adverb in this sentence: I visit my grandparents frequently.

30 Recite a poem of your choice to a family member.

