1. Check them carefully or ask a grown-up to check with you!
2. Remember to end your sentence with an exclamation mark.
3. Adjectives are describing words. For example: The big brown shaggy dog found a thin wet stick.
4. There are two mistakes in this sentence. First the word 'hair' is the incorrect spelling, it should actually be 'hare'. Second, the name 'harold' is a proper noun and should start with a capital letter. The correct answer is: A tortoise raced with a hare called Harold.
5. A verb is a doing word. Your sentence should use the word 'write' as a verb. For example: Write the date in the top left hand corner of your page.
- 6/7. Your poem needs to be about love. Read it loudly and confidently. Try to remember the poem line by line to help you recite it from memory.
8. Remember to end your sentence with a question mark. For example: Is dad outside washing the car?
9. Make a prediction based on what you already know about the plot and the characters in your book.
10. Write a paragraph based on the prediction you made yesterday. Remember to use capital letters and punctuation appropriately.
11. You should have used apostrophes to contract these words. The answers are: I'm, don't and can't.
12. Check them carefully or ask a grown-up to check with you!
- 13/14. You can be as creative as you want when you write this poem! Your poem could be any form – it could rhyme, be acrostic or a shape poem. You can think about people you love in your life and use that as inspiration.

15. You could create a drawing, painting or create a piece of artwork with tissue paper. Re-read your poem to get inspiration for your artwork.
16. Speech marks should be added to this sentence to indicate direct speech. The answer is: "Hello" shouted Celine. "Can you hear me from over there?" Steph shouted back.
17. The sentence should be changed so it is in the past tense. The verb 'visit' should be changed to 'visited' by adding the suffix -ed, to indicate the tense has changed. The answer is: I visited my grandparents, who live in London.
18. Adjectives are describing words. Examples of adjectives that describe the colour green are: leafy, lush, growth, harmony, fresh.
19. Common nouns refer to general, non-specific people, places, things or ideas. The common nouns which should be underlined are: mountains and trees.
20. Remember to split up items in your list with commas. For example: My favourite fruits and vegetables are peaches, mangoes, strawberries, cucumber, avocado and kale.
21. A synonym is a word that means the same thing as another word. Examples of synonyms for the word big include: enormous, gigantic, massive, giant, colossal.
22. A verb is a doing word and an adverb adds detail to a verb. For example: "I need a drink of water!" Jack shouted aggressively. The word 'shouted' is the verb and the word 'aggressively' is the adverb.
23. The answer is: The book's pages.
24. Check them carefully or ask a grown-up to check with you!
25. A proper noun refers to a specific person, place or thing. The words that should be circled are: London, Amy and Paris.
