

English

February Year 5&6

Tutor In A Box

Learn the spellings: foreign, forty, frequently.

List three adjectives associated with the colour blue.

Write a sentence using an exclamation mark to show anger.

Write a statement using an imperative verb.

Circle the proper noun and underline the common noun in this sentence: My dog, Shadow, loves to chase cars.

Create a set of instructions on how to make a fruit smoothie.

Add a semicolon to this sentence: I always recommend Nando's they have a great menu.

Write three synonyms for the word fast.

Learn the spellings: government, guarantee, harass.

Match the correct suffix to these root words: kind___, argue___, fellow___, -ment, -ship and -ness.

Create a biography of the Olympic gold medalist, Tom Daley! Use books and the internet to help with your research.

Underline the subordinate clause in this sentence: The museum was very interesting, as I expected.

What is the common prefix in these words? misbehave, misplace, misread.

Write a question that you would like to ask the author of your reading book.

Pick an action verb to complete this sentence: Susan _____ as far as she could.

What is a common noun? Give three examples of common nouns.

Write a sentence including the words: panda, cage and bamboo.

Correct and rewrite this sentence: The cat slept in front of the fiyre.

Learn the spellings: hindrance, identity, immediate.

Write a poem about love.

Write a song about happiness.

Create a piece of artwork inspired by the poem you have written.

Split this compound sentence into two simple sentences: Rick doesn't like reading magazines, but he does like to read books.

Use an adverb to fill in the gap in the sentence: Patrick _____ waited to hear if he had won the competition.

Find a poem about love and read it aloud.

Be as creative as you can!

