

1
Learn the spellings: extreme, famous, favourite.

2
Write a question that starts with the phrase: Which way...

3
Write down all the homophones for the word 'there'.

4
List three adjectives you associate with the colour blue.

5
Use an apostrophe to shorten the phrase 'will not'.

6
Write an alternative ending to the last book you read. Be as creative as you can!

7
Write a sentence using an exclamation mark and the words: cake, large and pink.

8
Using a dictionary, find the definition of the word 'advertisement'.

9
Rewrite the sentence you identified yesterday in your own words.

10
Find a phrase that tells you how a character in your book is feeling.

11
Learn the spellings: February, forwards, fruit.

12
Write the opening paragraph to a story using this prompt: Blinded by a bright light outside his window, Jake jumped up in horror...

13
Add a comma to this sentence: In five minutes David will be able to go home.

14
Use three adjectives to describe how you are feeling.

15
How many words can you make using the letters from the title of your current reading book?

16
Answer this question in the past tense - what did you watch on TV last night?

17
Correct this sentence: Amys backpack and Bens pencil case were left on the desk after school.

18
Add the missing conjunction to this sentence: I will make pizza for dinner ___ we can have ice cream for dessert.

19
Write a sentence using the conjunction 'although'.

20
List five examples of common nouns.

21
Learn the spellings: grammar, group, guard.

22
Draw a character from your reading book using details from the story!

23
Create the headline for a newspaper based on a dramatic event in your reading book!

24
Write a sentence using the verb 'read'.

25
Underline the adverb in this sentence: Jenna rides her bike well.

26
Find three unfamiliar words in your reading book and find their dictionary definitions.

27
Write three sentences using the words you identified yesterday!