

English

July Year 5&6

Tutor In A Box

1. Make a list of antonyms for 'cold'.

2. Identify the relative clause in this sentence: The boy, who couldn't wait for the summer holidays, was counting down every day.

3. Learn the spellings: stomach, sufficient, suggest.

4. What punctuation is missing from this sentence? If it is sunny we will go to the beach. Can you explain why?

5. Find an example of where a character's body language shows us how they are feeling in your current reading book.

6. Write an opening paragraph to follow this sentence: It was the year 3046...

7. In this sentence in the active or passive voice? The pencil was lost by the boy.

8. How do you know this sentence is informal? I can't wait until the holidays - they'll be awesome!

9. Make a prediction about what you think will happen next in the book you are reading.

10. Give some examples of subordinating conjunctions.

11. How does adding a hyphen to man eating shark change the meaning?

12. Unscramble this sentence so the modal verb is in the right place: It rain may so take an umbrella.

13. Rewrite the sentence using a more effective word than walked: Rose walked away from the haunted house.

14. Write a blurb for the back of your favourite book and see if someone can guess what genre it is!

15. The word watch can have two different meanings. Write two sentences using it as a noun in one and a verb in the other.

16. Think of at least three synonyms for the word bright.

17. Identify the subject and object in this sentence: The man ate an ice cream cake.

18. Change this sentence into a command: Could you throw me the beach ball?

19. Rewrite the sentence using a more effective word than walked: Rose walked away from the haunted house.

20. How many different words can you think of to replace 'said'?

21. Draw a picture of your favourite character or a setting from your current reading book. Label it with your favourite line from your book so far.

22. Find three examples of fronted adverbials in your reading book.

23. Rewrite this sentence with the correct plural: The childs went to the theme park.

24. Learn the spellings: symbol, system, temperature.

25. Copy out some dialogue from your reading book or lyrics from a favourite song in your neatest handwriting.

26. What punctuation could you use to add parenthesis to a sentence?

27. Write an acrostic poem using 'SUMMER'

28. Write a question beginning with: how often.

29. Learn the spellings: thorough, twelfth, variety.

30. Write an opening paragraph to follow this sentence: It was the year 3046...

31. In this sentence in the active or passive voice? The pencil was lost by the boy.

32. How do you know this sentence is informal? I can't wait until the holidays - they'll be awesome!

