

English

June Year 5&6

Tutor In A Box

1
Write a list of synonyms for 'angry'.

2
Learn the spellings: restaurant, rhyme, rhythm.

3
Find a good description of a story setting and list useful vocabulary.

4
Find a poem you like and copy it out in your best handwriting.

5

6
Identify the verb in this sentence: What do you want to achieve this year?

7
Find two or three books by the same author. What do they have in common?

8
Is this a statement, question, command or exclamation: I'm starving!

9
Move the subordinate clause to the start: I am going to Paris when I've finished my exams.

10
Learn the spellings; sacrifice, secretary, shoulder.

11
Why do you think the author of your current reading book chose the title?

12
Think of a time you've been in the same situation as a character. Did you react in the same way as them?

13
Which modal verbs begin with m?

14
List three adverbs of time.

15
Think of an opening line for a story entitled The Memory.

16
Underline the relative clause: You can walk home alone when you are old enough.

17
List the main characters in your reading book and rank them in order of power.

18
Identify two prepositions: The keys are on the table behind the vase.

19
Rewrite this in Standard English: Me mam went town on bus this morning.

20
Redesign the front cover for your current or last reading book to improve it.

21
Recite a poem of your choice to a family member.

22
Make the subject and verb agree: We was on holiday when the storm happened.

23
Write an alternative ending to a book you have read.

24
Learn the spellings: signature, sincerely, soldier.

25
Rewrite this sentence in the passive voice: The teacher put us into groups.

26
Omit the relative pronoun from this sentence: There's the cat that I saw earlier.

27
Swap the two nouns for pronouns in the second sentence: The pupils will visit the farm. The pupils will love the farm.

28
Add a fronted adverbial to this sentence: We went away in our caravan.

