

English

May Year 1&2

Tutor In A Box

1 Where does the apostrophe go in 'haven't'?

2 Make an expanded noun phrase from the following sentence: The ocean.

3 Learn the spellings: fast, last, past.

4 Can you find some interesting adjectives in your reading book?

5 Try to use the adjectives you found yesterday when you are talking today.

6 Which words do you know that have the ending -tion?

7 What makes a character 'good'?

8 Make up an extra character for your reading book. Draw and label a picture of them.

9 Can you think of any books that are similar to your current reading book?

10 Do these words need capital letters? sam, portugal and nickelodeon.

11 Why do you think the author chose the title of your current reading book?

12 Make these adjectives into adverbs: kind, wild, beautiful.

13 Put yesterday's adverbs into a sentence each.

14 Read a poem you like aloud to a family member.

15 Write down three questions you would like to ask your favourite book character.

16 Think of some adjectives that have the suffix -ful.

17 Learn the spellings: pass, class, grass.

18 Listen to someone reading and sum up the story.

19 How does adding the prefix un- change the meaning of happy and done?

20 Imagine something from your reading book has been stolen. Create a missing poster!

21 How would you start a story about a robot that appears in your bedroom?

22 What does a glossary tell us?

23 Make these nouns plural: dish, box, dress.

24 What's missing? I ate my lunch quickly ____ I was so hungry!

25 Think of some compound nouns like housekeeper.

26 Can you find some adverbs in your reading book?

27 Can you make up a new title for your reading book?

28 Learn the spellings: pretty, beautiful, after.

